

Perfum, 2014

La Vida al Camp is inspired by the "Cabaler" Jaume Raventós' book from 1898, where he explains his childhood experiences on the farm in Sant Sadurní d'Anoia. He is an ancestor of the Raventós family and describes in detail what life was like on the Penedés farms at that time and how farmers in the region worked the land with respect and love for local matters.

Perfum combines the aromatic notes of Muscat, with its unmistakable floral notes, with our local Macabeu grapes, a temperamental variety which adds freshness and vivacity.

Analytical Data

Alcohol by volume: 11,50% Vol
Total acidity (measured as tartaric): 6,12 gr/l
pH: 3,15

Tasting Notes

"Perfum" presents itself with the simplicity of pleasure for pleasure's sake, the agreeable sensation of enjoyment without thought and of being captivated by a great aromatic intensity reminiscent of fresh grapes, extremely floral where roses reign supreme, as well as peach and a hint of fresh fig.

On the palate it's straight forward and immediate but with a pleasant juiciness. Its extremely aromatic palate perfectly symbolizes this idea of "perfume".

55% Moscatel de Frontignan
45% Macabeo

"If smells evoke sensations, perfume evokes emotions"

